

TALLAHASSEE – On Thursday, November 12, 2009, U.S. Congressman Allen Boyd (D-North Florida) will hold a community forum at the Christian Heritage Church to discuss the most recent developments in the national healthcare debate as well as other issues before Congress.

“The strong interest in town hall meetings throughout North Florida shows that the public is very engaged on the important issues facing the country today, healthcare in particular,” said Congressman Boyd. “This forum will be an opportunity for me to continue hearing from the people of Leon County and discuss what responsible healthcare reform should look like.”
